

【Beijing Government Scholarship】

The Beijing Government Scholarship (BGS) is established by Beijing Municipal Government in order to encourage excellent foreign students and scholars to study and research in Beijing. This endeavor contributes to promoting the internationalization of the city's higher education. The BGS scholarship is used to sponsor those international students who are currently applying for admission or who have been pursuing degrees in BISU.

The assessment committee comprises of the President of BISU, and its Educational Administration, Postgraduate Office, departments and International Student Affairs Office. International Student Affairs Office is mainly responsible for the acceptance and administration of scholarship. According to Open, Fair and Impartial principles, BISU is authorized to evaluate scholarship qualifications and make effective use of the funds.
